UPON THE EXPIRATION OF ITS VALIDITY, THIS PERMIT MUST BE

INFORMATION CONCERNING PERMITS TO REENTER

A permit to reenter has no effect under the immigration laws except to show that the person to whom issued is returning from a temporary visit abroad and relieve him of the necessity of securing a visa from an American Consul before returning to the United States. It does not relieve him from meeting the other requirements of the immigration laws. Persons who have been convicted of or admit having committed a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude either before or after entering the United States, other criminal, immoral, insane, mentally or physically defective aliens, those afflicted with loathsome or contagious diseases, and others found to be inadmissible under the immigration laws are subject to exclusion if attempting to reenter, notwithstanding they may be in possession of permits to reenter.

EFFECT OF ABSENCE FROM UNITED STATES UPON NATURALIZATION ELIGIBILITY

A permit to reenter does not relieve the person to whom issued from meeting the requirements of the naturalization laws. Notwithstanding the possession of a reentry permit, absence from the United States by an applicant for naturalization for a continuous period of 1 year or more during the period for which continuous residence in the United States is required for admission to citizenship will break the continuity of such residence, except where, prior thereto, the Attorney General has approved an absence in the employment of, or under contract with, the United States Government or an American institution of research recognized as such by the Attorney General, or in the employment of an American firm or corporation engaged in whole or part in the development of foreign trade and commerce of the United States or a subsidiary thereof, more than 50 percent of whose stock is owned by an American firm or corporation, or in the employment of a public international organization of which the United States is a member by treaty or statute and by which the alien was not employed until after being lawfully admitted for permanent residence. In order to qualify for such approval the applicant must have been physically present and residing in the United States, after being lawfully admitted for permanent residence, for an uninterrupted period of at least 1 year. The granting of such approval does not exempt the applicant from the requirement that he be physically present in the United States for at least one-half of the period of residence required for naturalization ~~except in the case of those persons who are employed by, or under contract with, the Government of the United States, or persons who are authorized to perform the ministerial or priestly functions of a religious denomination having a bona fide organization within the United States, and those persons who are engaged solely by a religious denomination or by an interdenominational mission organization having a bona fide organization within the United States as a missionary, brother, nun or sister. Such approval should be applied for on Form N-470, "Application to Preserve Residence for Naturalization Purposes (under section 316 (b) or 317, Immigration and Nationality Act)" available at any office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service.~~

Aliens who are absent in connection with or for the purpose of performing the ministerial or priestly functions of a religious denomination having a bona fide organization in the United States, or who are engaged by such a denomination or an interdenominational mission organization having a bona fide organization within the United States, as a missionary, brother, nun, or sister, are also eligible to make such application. Such aliens may acquire the required 1 year of uninterrupted physical presence after the absence.

EXTENSIONS

The validity of a permit may, on good cause shown, be extended for a period or periods not exceeding 1 year from the original expiration date. Application for extension should be made between 30 and 60 days prior to the expiration date shown on this permit.

The application must contain (a) the name of the applicant, and his address in the United States; (b) when, where, and by what means he departed from the United States; (c) port of landing and date of arrival abroad; (d) countries visited in the order visited; (e) reason for requesting extension and period for which desired; and (f) applicant's address abroad; and must be accompanied by the permit.

The application must be sworn to. If executed in the United States the application may be sworn to before an officer of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, without payment of notarial fee; or before a notary public or other officer authorized to administer oaths for general purposes; and in such cases, the official seal or certificate of authority to administer oaths must be affixed. If executed outside the United States, the application must be sworn to before a Consular Officer of the United States.

The application must be submitted to the officer in charge of the district in which the holder resides in the United States by the person to whom the permit was issued and must be accompanied by a fee of $10. Remittances by persons outside the United States should be by international money order, drawn on Washington, D. C., or foreign exchange on a bank in the United States. All remittances should be made payable to the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Department of Justice. If extension is refused, the fee will be refunded. The permit, if extended will be returned to the address given in the application.

If the validity of the permit or extension thereto has expired the alien must obtain an immigration visa from an American Consul before embarking for the United States.

DIRECTIONS FOR MAKING A WILL

The following instructions should be carefully read and observed. They have been drawn up in the simplest form in order to enable you to interpret them easily and observe the formalities required by law.

WRITE PLAINLY AND DISTINCTLY. EXPRESS YOUR WISHES CLEARLY.

1. Write your Will in simple, non-legal sentences. The only legal formality with which you need concern yourself is in regard to the signing and attesting of the Will.
2. When you have reached the end of the Will you should call in two witnesses and, in their presence, sign your name immediately below the last line you have written. The two witnesses should then each sign their names, adding their addresses and occupations in the space provided for that purpose. The legal formality which you must observe is that you and the two witnesses must all sign in each other's presence.
3. In selecting your witnesses do not choose anyone who is to receive any gift under your Will nor even the husband or wife of any such person. If you do the gift to him or her will be void.
4. The only duty of the witnesses is to see you sign your Will. There is no need for them to read its contents.
5. Except in a few rare occasions with which you need not concern yourself, no one can make a valid Will unless he or she has attained the age of 21 years.
6. Do not attempt to alter your Will by adding to it or by crossing out any words. If you wish to make any alterations draw up a new Will.
7. No Stamp is required on a Will.
8. A Will is revoked by (a) making a new one (b) marriage, and (c) intentionally destroying it.
9. Appoint two persons to be your Executors and Trustees. It is not always necessary to have two but it is safest to appoint two. If you wish to refer to your Executors in your Will you should not write out their names each time; refer to them as "my Trustees." Before appointing your Executors it is advisable to ask if they are willing to serve.
10. On your death your Will becomes the property of your Executors, who are empowered to prove it, after which your dispositions will be carried out.
11. Should you find it necessary to use more than one page continue on the second page and cross out the Attestation clause at the foot of the first page and use the one at the foot of the second page.
12. If when giving a legacy, you wish the recipient to receive the full amount, you should add, after the amount, the words "free of duty."
13. The addresses of legatees and other beneficiaries should be stated. All sums of money should be written in words, as well as, or instead of, figures.
14. Your Will speaks as at the date of your death. When making your Will you cannot tell exactly what property you will possess at the date of your death and it is, therefore, advisable that you end your Will with the following words: —AND I GIVE the remainder of my estate, both real and personal, whatsoever, and wheresoever unto.....
15. This Form is primarily designed for a simple form of Will and the directions are so worded to help you in its preparation.
16. If you are in the slightest doubt regarding your Will, or if you wish to make any special conditions or provisos, it is wise to consult a Solicitor who would prepare your Will for a reasonable fee.
17. Prepare a draft Will on a piece of paper first and then when you are satisfied it reads correctly and states your wishes clearly, copy this on the proper Form and complete it; finally put it in a safe place.

1. Write your Will in simple, non-legal sentences. The only legal formality with which you need concern yourself is in regard to the signing and attesting of the Will.

2. When you have reached the end of the Will you should call in two witnesses and, in their presence, sign your name immediately below the last line you have written. The two witnesses should then each sign their names, adding their addresses and occupations in the space provided for that purpose. The legal formality which you must observe is that you and the two witnesses must all sign in each other's presence.

3. In selecting your witnesses do not choose anyone who is to receive any gift under your Will nor even the husband or wife of any such person. If you do the gift to him or her will be void.

4. The only duty of the witnesses is to see you sign your Will. There is no need for them to read its contents.

5. Except in a few rare occasions with which you need not concern yourself, no one can make a valid Will unless he or she has attained the age of 21 years.

6. Do not attempt to alter your Will by adding to it or by crossing out any words. If you wish to make any alterations draw up a new Will.

7. No Stamp is required on a Will.

8. A Will is revoked by (a) making a new one (b) marriage, and (c) intentionally destroying it.

9. Appoint two persons to be your Executors and Trustees. It is not always necessary to have two but it is safest to appoint two. If you wish to refer to your Executors in your Will you should not write out their names each time; refer to them as "my Trustees." Before appointing your Executors it is advisable to ask if they are willing to serve.

10. On your death your Will becomes the property of your Executors, who are empowered to prove it, after which your dispositions will be carried out.

11. Should you find it necessary to use more than one page continue on the second page and cross out the Attestation clause at the foot of the first page and use the one at the foot of the second page.

12. If when giving a legacy, you wish the recipient to receive the full amount, you should add, after the amount, the words "free of duty."

13. The addresses of legatees and other beneficiaries should be stated. All sums of money should be written in words, as well as, or instead of, figures.

14. Your Will speaks as at the date of your death. When making your Will you cannot tell exactly what property you will possess at the date of your death and it is, therefore, advisable that you end your Will with the following words:—AND I GIVE the remainder of my estate, both real and personal, whatsoever, and wheresoever unto.....

15. This Form is primarily designed for a simple form of Will and the directions are so worded to help you in its preparation.

16. If you are in the slightest doubt regarding your Will, or if you wish to make any special conditions or provisos, it is wise to consult a Solicitor who would prepare your Will for a reasonable fee.

17. Prepare a draft Will on a piece of paper first and then when you are satisfied it reads correctly and states your wishes clearly, copy this on the proper Form and complete it; finally put it in a safe place.

18. It should be noted that under the Inheritance (Family Provision) Act, 1938, a person domiciled in England and leaving a Will must make reasonable provision for the maintenance of dependants. Otherwise legal powers can be obtained in order that such provision as is necessary be made out of the Testator's net estate.

Dated at Bern, Switzerland, this 23rd day of August, 1979.

My commission expires _____, 19____

INSTRUCTIONS—READ CAREFULLY

1. A power of attorney on this form may be executed as authority for the endorsement and collection of checks drawn on the Treasurer of the United States. This power of attorney must name a financial organization as attorney, must be limited in duration to a specified 12-month period, and must recite that it is not given to carry into effect an assignment to the attorney, or to any other person, of the right to receive the payments therein described. The term "financial organization" means any bank, savings bank, savings and loan association or similar institution, or Federal or State chartered credit union.

2. If the signature of the grantor is made by mark, it should be witnessed by at least one person who can write, other than the acknowledging officer, giving his place of residence in full.

3 (a). This power of attorney should be acknowledged before a notary public or other officer authorized by law to administer oaths generally. If in a foreign country, the acknowledgment should be made before a United States diplomatic or consular representative. If such an officer is not available, it may be acknowledged before a notary or other officer authorized to administer oaths, but his official character and jurisdiction must be certified by a United States diplomatic or consular officer, under the seal of his office.

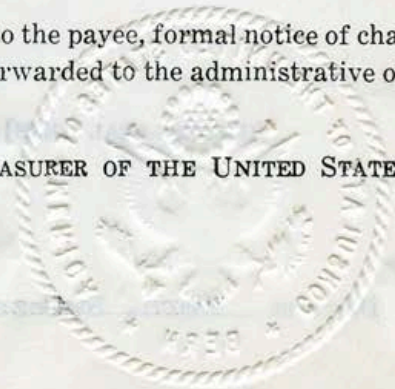

3 (b). Seals of attesting officers must always be impressed; provided, however, that where acknowledgments before a notary public, or other officer authorized by law to administer oaths, are not thus authenticated by the official impression seal of such officer, the power should be accompanied by a certificate from the proper official showing that the officer was in commission on the date of the acknowledgment. The date when the officer's commission expires should appear in any event. If a certificate is furnished, such certificate should show the dates of the beginning and expiration of the officer's commission, and such period of commission should include the date of acknowledgment of the power.

3 (c). Notwithstanding the foregoing, persons subject to military jurisdiction may acknowledge powers of attorney before officers specially designated for that purpose pursuant to law.

4. This power of attorney is revoked by the death of the grantor and may also be revoked by notice from the grantor to the parties concerned. Notice of revocation to the Treasury will not ordinarily serve to revoke the power.

5. If it is desired that checks be mailed to the attorney instead of to the payee, formal notice of change in the post-office address, identifying the checks affected, should be forwarded to the administrative office which authorized issuance of the checks.

6. POWERS OF ATTORNEY NEED NOT BE FILED WITH THE TREASURER OF THE UNITED STATES.
