Mr. Paul Brunton,
P. O. Box 789,
Hollywood, Calif.

Dear Mr. Brunton:

This will acknowledge receipt of your thesis entitled "Parallels Between Modern Occidental Thoughts and Ancient Indian Philosophy", which has been reviewed by our Educational Director and our Faculty and has been found highly satisfactory.

We congratulate you not only upon the originality of your treatment of the subject, but also upon its neat and uniform preparation which makes it not only a valuable asset as a thesis and as a part of your educational qualifications, but also evidences a very careful and accurate presentation according to our rules and regulations.

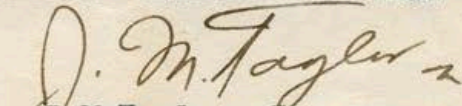

Your diploma conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Philosophy has been ordered from the lithographers and it will be sent to you as soon as ready, properly executed, signed and sealed.

With congratulations and best wishes, we are

Yours very truly,

Mr. Paul H. Hunsicker,
P. O. Box 780,
Bellevue, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Hunsicker:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter entitled "Relationship Between Modern Occultism and Ancient Egyptian Religion," which has been reviewed by our Editor, Mr. Hunsicker, and our Editor, Mr. Hunsicker.

We congratulate you not only upon the authorship of your first book, but also upon the fact that it is a valuable contribution to the study of the occult and the occultism, and also evidence of a very careful and accurate presentation according to our rules and regulations.

Your book is being reviewed by the Editor of the "Occult Review," and we have been informed from the Editor that it is all in line with our aims and is very well presented and well written.

With congratulations and best wishes, we are

Yours very truly,
