

A DEDICATION

I can see my soul peeping out at things I cannot see, and beckoning me to follow. I can feel its protest against my uncertainty, its anger at my stubbornness. I can feel it urging me on to what must be--- and so I follow.

For unto the soul is granted the vision, but the body must realise it. No human being can go beyond the scope of the soul's vision; the soul is you, and you can do no more than your soul is capable of. It is the vital part of you, and it is meant to spur, to arouse, to teach, and to lead you.

Who would neglect such a gift? The man who thirsts after knowledge does so because his soul sees things he cannot see, and he must fight against his human blindness to satisfy the craving of his soul---and so he reads. And by this means he comes upon those inner visions, and follows his destiny.

For what is destiny but urge? The restless, seeking, probing spirit within you, don't you feel it. Unhappy is the man who fights against it, he is denying himself.

The spirit leads, and we must follow. It goes before us with the torch of destiny and lights the path of those who struggle on. It is God's own gift to us, for we are what He made us, and we can only see what He permits us to see.

Therefore, when we deny that urge within us: the thirst for knowledge, the desire to invent, or the inclination to serve, we are at war with our own selves.

Follow the spirit, follow the spirit, everyone! Climb up the rugged hillsides, or seek the quiet pathway if that is your desire, for that is where you must go. Remember, the Spirit of Destiny is leading you always.

Desire is the demand of the real you, and fulfilment is the attainment of whatever it is that you desire.

I can feel my soul peeping up a rugged path, and far beyond it, and I will follow, for I also want to see. I will not ignore longing and thwart my destiny. God, when He gave this soul to me, intended that it should light my way and direct me. I feel it beckoning me to follow, and urging me on, and so I go.

Lead me, thou soul of mine, beyond my human blindness; give me the inner vision, and show me the things that I desire, that I was meant to see.

Crisis of Man"

The Over-Soul:

Great Over-Soul I seek Thy face,
Thou know the veiling mist;
I lift mine eyes - Cause me to see
Thy Face, Thy loveliness.

Great Over-Soul, my dear dear Self,
Flow through me I implore;
Fulfill Thy Plan, Cause me to serve,
Unite us more and more.

Pure focus in the heavens Thou art
Of Heitz's Love and Power;
In perfect wisdom Thou dost flow
Completely, every hour.

Where'er I walk do Thou flow forth
Through this outer Self of mine
I now surrender all to Thee -
For all I have is Thine.

Oh Great God-Self, my Over-Soul,
I sense Thee - feel Thee, ~~near~~ pour
Into my waiting Consciousness
Thy Presence. I adore
Thy great eternal waiting-ness,
Cause to cease my tardy ways;

I earnestly seek Thee, my dear Self - would realize Thee - always.

The One One Centre:

My own most glorious One-Soul
I am at one with Thee
I breathe Thee with every breath
I AM - at one with Thee.

Thou art the life within me,
Focus of Thee I am, -

A radio-active Centre -
Of the Father's Perfect Plan
Whereby His <sup>glorious</sup> attributes
Are one by one expressed.

I look to Thee, - my One-Soul,
Thou causest me to rest. -
Assured, beloved Great God-Self -
Of Thine unflowing Grace;
Flow through me every moment,
Hold me in Thine embrace.

From my Centre, radio-active -
Where all of Godhead is -
Unfold now Thy reality,
Annihilate the mist
Which hides Thine own great splendour -
Shine forth, O Thee adored!

And when I see Thee - face to face -
I'll love Thee more and more.
O nevermore Sweet vision fade,
For only thus can I

At perfect Sleep hood - Thee - arrive,
O Single Keep mine eye.
Seeing perfection - ~~as Thou art~~ as Thou art -
In all mankind around;
Thus healing streams shall from Thee flow,
Thy saving Grace abound.

At last I see Thee, face to face,
Simply, but still I know see -
I know Thee now in heaven above
I am at one with Thee

Camps Farthest Out for 1947

Why the Camps Farthest Out?

The Camps Farthest Out have grown and become popular for only one reason. They make the religion of Jesus a personal and a creative experience that people can appreciate and understand. The experience so takes hold of the individual that he goes home to find himself joyously creating what Jesus so aptly termed "the Kingdom of Heaven" in the routine affairs of making a living.

This is why Glenn Clark founded the camps in the first place. He found, in his own life, that what Jesus taught was not something to be locked up in churches and hidden in books, but something that could be lived creatively every moment of each day of the year. And more than that, it would work for anyone—if given the chance.

People first began to hear of Glenn Clark when his The Soul's Sincere Desire was published in 1926. In it he described prayer in language, in laymen's words, that made his book a religious best seller for many years. Readers found that what he said was true, that his "secret" worked! Religion took on new clothing; the clothing of joy, creativity and abundance. The demand for a camp bore fruit in 1930 when a group of people in the Twin Cities made possible the first Camp Farthest Out—more on faith than on money. This was held at Lake Koronis in Minnesota.

People came to Koronis from all over the country. Soon these first campers, after meeting with others similarly interested in the new approach to Jesus' promises (actually taking Jesus at his word and acting upon it), established other camps.

Each camp is a cooperative endeavor. A group of people who believe in the reality and power of prayer meet together periodically throughout the year. At these meetings plans are made for established camps; and new camps are born.

After all, is not this the way that the first churches were born and grew? In a fellowship that was powered by the spirit of the Almighty Himself, men and women found the answer to their needs. They experienced the joy that is in life if we cooperate with the laws and purposes of God. They discovered that their own life was important, and that life had definite meaning.

So, the reason for the Camps Farthest Out is that they are experience laboratories that bring to life what Jesus taught about the Eternal. While they remain this, they will continue to grow each year, and people will continue to come to them in greater numbers each year.

Flash

Beginning with the April issue, the Christian Herald will run two condensations of part of Glenn Clark's The Man Who Walked In His Steps. The response to this book has been very good. Some of Dr. Sheldon's friends in Kansas have written to Dr. Clark expressing their gratitude for this memorial to Charles Sheldon, author of the immortal In His Steps.

13 Camps This Summer!

The number of Camps Farthest Out has more than doubled this year over last. Of the thirteen camps this summer, seven of them are new. Here is the way they look, beginning with the first opening date and closing with the last.

PENNSYLVANIA (new), September 3-12

New Books By Camp Leaders

Four camp leaders are having books published this spring.

Glenn Clark is the author of a new book titled The Way of Love. In it he describes how we may bring together, and purify, all levels of love. The price is $.35 each, or three for a dollar.

Mary Welch's new book is called Bright Captivity. Her theme is that when one is willingly in "captivity to Christ" one is the natural recipient of the infinite liberties and eternal freedoms which stem from God. The price is $.50.

J. Rufus Moseley has written How To Receive The Healing of Jesus Christ. In it he lists thirteen things one can do to be healed, and he illustrates each step with examples of healing that have made use of it. The price is $.25.

Agnes Sanford's book, The Healing Light, is concerned with the art and method of Christian spiritual healing. She explains the basis of all healing, and describes the techniques and spiritual conditioning which makes healing possible. The Healing Light will be published on May 1st, and will cost $2.00.

Harper and Brothers, New York, are bringing out a revised and enlarged edition of Mr. Moseley's Manifest Victory this spring.

The Camp Program

The details of each local camp program will differ from others. Local conditions, needs, interests and emphasis demand methods suitable for satisfying them.

However, there is a general program which has grown up, and which is considered the framework for the local program. The basic program is as follows:

7:00—Meditation. The early morning meditation under skillful leaders sets the tone for the whole day.

7:30—Breakfast.

9:00—Spiritual Orchestration. This is the main spoken message of the day. It is given by the main camp leader, or the co-leader. Expositions on spiritual laws and the principles of Jesus.

10:00—Creative Rhythm. A unique method that makes use of exercise on the one hand, and consciously making the body sensitive to the completeness of Spirit on the other hand.

11:00—Creative Painting and Writing. Adventures in freedom and in self-discovery.

12:30—Dinner.

1:30—Rest Period.

2:30—Recreation. Individual and group recreation as one desires.

4:00—Forum Hour. Talks which emphasize ways in which we can express our discoveries in daily living.

5:00—Prayer Laboratories. Experienced leaders direct small groups in communion with God. The art and methods of creative prayer are discussed. Prayer participation is encouraged.

6:00—Supper.

7:30—Evening Song. Praising God through song, as the evening shadows begin to lengthen, fills the heart with spiritual expectancy.

8:00—Galilean Hour. A spiritual message from one of the leaders. With mind, spirit and body relaxed and at rest, this is a meeting of high peaks and deep insights.

Registering for Camp

Some people had the unfortunate experience last summer of not registering for a camp until the last minute. Unfortunate because most camps were filled long before camp time arrived.

Some camps have a definite limit on the number they can adequately serve—both spiritually and physically.

If you wish to be sure of having a place at any camp, REGISTER EARLY. Applications are accepted in the order they arrive.

The registration fee is credited to your account.

The Star Island Camp

For the first time, since before the war, Star Island off the coast of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, is open for camping purposes. This location was one of the most popular before the war.

The Star Island camp this year is going to be for advanced campers ready to give time and much prayer and meditation for world needs. The usual camp program will not be followed. So unless you are interested to give your time and energy to this type of a camp, choose one more in line with your interests.

Attention Please!

Before choosing a camp, read the list of leaders carefully. Not every leader will be at every camp. So if you are particularly interested in a leader, note carefully if he is going to be at the camp you usually attend.

Camp Leaders for 1947

GLENN CLARK. Founder of the camps, international authority on prayer, and prominent author of over twenty books and booklets. Friend of such spiritual leaders as Gandhi, Kagawa, Schweitzer, E. Stanley Jones, Rufus Jones and others. Editor of Clear Horizons magazine, and founder of The College Farthest Out and Macalester Park Publishing Company.

STARR DAILY. Well-known author and lecturer who has always been popular at the camps. His redemptive work with the church and unchurched has been outstanding. One with a rich, virile message.

MARY WELCH. Author, and much in demand as a speaker at camps and retreats. Editor of a department in The New Life Magazine. Her popularity makes her much in demand throughout the year.

GLENN HARDING. Has made a reputation as a song and meditation leader since the early days of the camps. Creative leader of businessmen and youth. One of the authors of The Third Front and Together.

RUFUS MOSELEY. Known as the present day Brother Lawrence. Author, newspaper columnist and lecturer. A contagious personality with an inspiring message.

ALICE KRAFT. Specialist in the art of merging and integrating the spiritual, mental and physical through rhythmic movement. Campers look forward to Alice's classes.

ROLAND BROWN. Baptist minister from Chicago whose work and unusual experiences in prayer and healing have led Starr Daily to prepare a book about him for publication. Roland has been active in the camps for many years.

AGNES SANFORD. An outstanding pioneer in the art of spiritual healing and healing prayer. She is increasingly in demand as a speaker at retreats throughout the year, and at camps during the summer. Wife of an Episcopalian clergyman. Author of The Healing Light.

CLAIRE BOYER. Teacher of creative writing who has won the loyalty of so many at the camps and at the college.

G. V. McCAUSLAND. Assistant to president of Baldwin-Wallace college. A life devoted to creative recreation in every conceivable area, from children's ages to adults.

VERNA GALE. Teacher of art and popular counselor at the camps. Verna illustrated Dr. Clark's The World's Greatest Debate, is an accomplished sculptor and leader of meditations.

RUTH ROBISON. Conductor and leader of prayer groups in many cities. Gifted in the art of spiritual healing. One of the leaders of the New York Retreat.

LOUISE EGGLESTON. One of the outstanding prayer group leaders in the southeastern region of this country. A pioneer in the field of spiritual therapy.

GLADYS MOORE. An experienced teacher and beloved member of many of the camps. Gladys will teach writing at the Minnesota camp.

MARCIA BROWN. The talented wife of Roland has made a name for herself as a teacher of art in both the college and the camps. She is also a skillful meditation leader.

GENEVA MERCER. Spent her life in the field of sculpture, much of it in Italy. Assisted the famous Professor Moretti with his masterpieces. Miss Mercer is a professional of note in her own right.

FLORENCE WAGNER. Miss Wagner will teach art, especially finger painting, at the Lake Winnepesaukee camp in New Hampshire camp.

RUBY HERR RUSSELL. Accompanist for Miss Kraft for twenty years. A skillful pianist who studied in Canada and in Germany with Muszkowski.

MARGARET KLEMPERA. One of the most appreciated teachers of art in the camps. A graduate of the New York School of Art, she taught art at Washburn College and at Colorado State College A. and M.

FREDERICK J. COX. A Denver minister who has taught many classes in philosophy, literature and Bible at the University of Denver and summer camps. One of the leading exponents of the techniques of personal religious living.

GEORGIA HARKNESS. Professor of Applied Theology at Garrett Biblical Institute, an ordained minister and the first woman to hold a professorship of theology in a seminary. Miss Harkness is a prolific author and a popular one. She is in constant demand as a speaker at conferences and retreats. Colorado was fortunate to secure her for its camp.

LOUISE WRISLEY. Miss Wrisley has been active in social settlement work and group work. Her work experience and experience at the camps and the college have prepared her to lead art work.

JOHN HANCHETT. Mr. Hanchett has consented to be one of the leaders at the Southern California Camp.

Camp Reading Preparation

It would be hard to over-estimate the value and importance of preparing oneself to fully appreciate what a religious camp has to offer. And when you consider that a lot of what you get comes from the leaders of a camp, becoming acquainted with the ideas and the viewpoints of the leaders is most important. The best way to do this is to read at least one book by each leader. In all likelihood you will want to own the book anyway because it has value in itself apart from the author. But for the camper it has double importance, in that it is often your most intimate introduction to the camp leader.

The following list of books by authors were published by different companies, but they are all stocked by Macalester Park Publishing Company for your convenience.

Healing Camps

The camp at Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, is the only camp devoted entirely to the theme of spiritual therapy. Those wishing help in this line are urged to attend this camp.

The Pennsylvania camp will emphasize healing in its program.

The camp in Montana and the camp in New Hampshire will each offer a full time course in spiritual healing.

At all of these camps the leaders will be people who have not only studied the subject thoroughly, but people who have had experience in it.

Camp Accommodations

Under each camp note what it says about the accommodations and personal facilities, and also about what it says to bring along with you. Some camps are more rustic than others. Many prefer them that way, but if you are one who does not like to get too close to nature, choose a camp accordingly.

Camp Bedding

At some camps it is necessary to bring your own sheets and blankets. In such instances, arrangements can be made with the camp so you may mail these articles ahead of time. In this way you will not be bothered with them while travelling.

"As a Man Thinketh"

Sometimes a short statement throws a shaft of light on the inner soul of a person. Think on some of these. "As we abide in Him, we fulfill every possibility of our humanity."—Agnes Sanford. "The partnership of love makes us extensions of Jesus and his Kingdom."—J. Rufus Moseley. "Let something beautiful be born of every moment of togetherness with God."—Mary Welch. "God is always the loving Father, ready to give unto us before we ask."—Glenn Clark. "God must seep in until you begin to sense His great reality."—Glenn Harding. "If we open ourselves to redemptive love we will receive it."—Starr Daily.

The Camp In Texas

Beautiful "Palacios-by-the-Sea" is the site for the Texas camp. Located on Matagorda Bay on the Gulf Coast, this location has been the Mecca of Texas Baptists for forty years. Bounded on the west, south and east by the warm salt waters of the Gulf, with shell drives and footpaths on a level green landscape, spotted with tropical palms and blossoming evergreen shrubs, Palacios-by-the-Sea is an invitation to happiness for those who love sunrises and sunsets and moonlight on the waters. There is warm, salt-water swimming, marvelous fishing and the utmost in spacious seclusion for fellowships with mutual friends.

For many reasons, it seemed propitious for Texas to be the early camp. While the council realizes that in so doing, it must sacrifice the convenience of many young persons and teachers, it sincerely hopes that these may be privileged to attend one of the later camps.

By way of compensation, the Texas council trusts that many ministers, their wives, and religious educational workers may find the date convenient, and that the camp may be a forerunner of widespread revivals in churches represented at this camp.

ACCOMMODATIONS: Unlimited! Between three and five hundred are expected. Everything is provided on a large scale for convenience and comfort. Housing consists of cottages and large houses equipped with cots and mattresses, indoor hot and cold showers and toilets, electricity and kerosene stoves. A modern and convenient cafeteria. There is an office building, postoffice, and ten class pavilions and other places for prayer groups, arts, etc. Powered excursion boats are available.

DATES. May 14 to May 23.

LEADERS. Glenn Clark, Starr Daily, Rufus Moseley, Mary Welch, G. V. McCausland and others.

RATES. $35.00 for entire period of ten days. Ministers, their wives, and educational directors will receive reductions. A $10.00 registration fee is payable in advance at time of application, and credited to the camper's account. Applications should be sent to the secretary not later than April 20th.

HOW TO GET THERE. Palacios is about 120 miles southwest of Houston, and 250 miles southeast of San Antonio. It has a splendid airport on the Houston-Corpus Christi line. Highways into the city from all directions. Bus connections to Palacios from all points. Rail facilities to Bay City or Victoria, connecting with busses.

SCHOLARSHIPS. Limited number. Contact secretary. SECRETARY. Mrs. Mary Welch, Route 2, Box 89, Henderson, Texas.

The Kansas Camp

The Kansas camp will be held at the Sedan Youth Camp in the Flint Hills, part of the foothills of the Ozarks. The camp is the property of the Sedan Community and the Sedan Lion's Club, and is under the management of the Kansas District Y.W.C.A. The grounds have four large buildings, one of which is the kitchen and dining room. The other three are dormitories, assembly hall, classrooms and the chapel. A smaller building will be used as the leaders dormitory.

A large stone fireplace in the administration building furnishes the ideal atmosphere for worship services and group meetings. The clearing by the lakeside is a splendid place for evening vespers.

There are adequate and convenient facilities for swimming, tennis, archery and other game and recreation equipment.

ACCOMMODATIONS. Guests live in the dormitories, and in spacious army officer tents if they are needed or desired. Living quarters are furnished with hardwood cots, double-deck in the dormitory and single in the tents, with good springs and excellent cotton mattresses.

Each guest must furnish his or her own sheets, pillow, pillow-slip, blankets and personal toilet articles. One should bring along clothing that will enable him to feel comfortably informal!

Guests will care for their own living quarters during their stay. Meals are well-balanced, appetizing and prepared by a trained dietitian. Food is wholesome and ample.

DATES. June 6 to June 12.

LEADERS. Glenn Clark, Starr Daily, Mary Welch, Alice Kraft, Ruby Russell and others.

RATES. $32.00 for entire period. A registration fee of $12.00 is payable in advance and credited to the account. For each additional member of the same family the registration fee is $6.00, making total cost only $26.00. For children under twelve years, the cost is $16.00 for entire period. Week-end guests: $15.00; children for half-price.

HOW TO GET THERE. Sedan is located on U. S. highway 166, and Kansas highway 99. Santa Fe Trailway busses stop in Sedan. For further information, see local announcement.

SCHOLARSHIPS. A few are available. Apply to Miss Lovana Stone, Kansas District Y.W.C.A., 137 Hillside, Wichita 8, Kansas.

SECRETARIES. For information regarding fees, accommodations, registration, and scholarships contact—Miss Lovana Stone, 137 Hillside, Wichita 8, Kansas.

For information regarding the camp program contact—Mrs. C. R. Mong, Neodesha, Kansas.

The Northern California Camp

The Camp Farthest Out in Northern California is to be held at Asilomar, a camp site on the coast of the Pacific, owned and operated by the National Y.W.C.A.

Going north from Asilomar one passes through Pacific Grove to Monterey, the early capital of California. In the opposite direction is the entrance to one of the most beautiful drives in the world leading to Carmel. This drive, from Monterey to Carmel, gives us a lovely succession of delightful beaches, and picturesque rocks where seals and sea fowl make their dwelling. And, at the center of it lies Asilomar, the "Haven by the Sea."

Situated between tall pines are twenty-eight buildings on sixty level acres giving lovely vistas across white sand dunes to windswept cypresses. From the chapel one looks out upon the ocean through the great frontal window. All the buildings are modern and well-equipped for comfort and pleasure.

Campers are urged to apply early.

ACCOMMODATIONS. Single and double rooms with heat and hot water, living rooms with open fires. Swimming, riding, walking, badminton, golf and tennis facilities.

DATES. Lunch on June 14 through lunch on June 22.

LEADERS. Glenn Clark, Starr Daily, Alice Kraft and Ruby Herr Russell.

RATES. Registration fee of $10.00 payable in advance. Single rooms $5.00 a day. Double rooms $3.00, $4.00 or $5.00 a day per person. Rates include room, linens, bedding, semi-weekly room service and meals.

HOW TO GET THERE. By motor: 120 miles south of San Francisco, 365 miles north of Los Angeles, 20 miles west of U. S. Highway 101 from Salinas; also reached by the beautiful Roosevelt Highway (California No. 1) directly on the coast. Southern Pacific Railroad or bus to Pacific Grove, taxi to Asilomar. United Airlines to Monterey Airport.

SCHOLARSHIPS. A few available. Contact secretary.
SECRETARY. Miss Margaret A. Prefontaine, 2306 Waverly Street, Oakland 12, California.

The Southern California Camp

The Camp Farthest Out in Southern California will be held at Redlands University, one of the most beautiful campuses in the state. Founded in 1909, Redlands University is a Christian, Liberal Arts college. Its chapel is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the United States; the chapel organ is one of the two most perfect in the country. Fellowship in Christ is the spirit of the university, and the great Christ window in the chapel sets the theme.

In this setting the Southern California camp expects to reach new harmonies in the Spirit, in which all will find rest and renewal.

ACCOMMODATIONS. The facilities at Redlands University are large, modern and comfortable. The rooms are all double, with and without connecting bath. Each room contains a wash basin.

Campers will bring their own sheets, pillowslips and blankets. The camp will make limited supplies of each available on a rental basis.

DATES. June 21 to June 28.

LEADERS. Glenn Clark, Glenn Harding, Claire Boyer, Alice Kraft, Mrs. Russell, Mary Welch and John Hanchett.

RATES. $5.00 a day. $25.00 to $35.00 for entire period depending on accommodations. Registration fee of $10.00 payable in advance.

HOW TO GET THERE. Redlands is 65 miles from Los Angeles by Pacific Electric Motor Transit bus. It is about 15 miles from Riverside.

SCHOLARSHIPS. Available. Contact secretary.

SECRETARY. Miss Elsie Thomas, 251 Rosemont Street, La Jolla, California.

The Colorado Camp

The Colorado camp will be held at the Y.M.C.A. grounds in Estes Park, Colorado. Here is one of the grandest places in the country to hold any kind of a camp, and especially a religious one. The mere sight of the location, the vast unlimited sweep of space and the towering mountains, is a deeply spiritual experience in itself.

Camping facilities and living accommodations at Estes are excellent. The silent, rugged beauty of the mountains is uplifting, and the traditions and open warmth of friendliness of Estes blends perfectly with the spirit of the camps.

In the past, the Colorado camp has demonstrated its ability to make of itself something great and permanent in a spiritual way. Everyone knows that this year will be no exception.

ACCOMMODATIONS. The facilities, comforts, conveniences, and accommodations at Estes are unsurpassed. Everything you can hope for in way of living ease, and recreational lines is there for the using.

Of special notice and interest to parents, there are all kinds of organized activities for older children, and younger ones may be left at a kindergarten where they receive excellent supervision and care.

SCHOLARSHIPS. Available. Contact secretary.

SECRETARY. Miss Ella Schenck, 2549 Birch Street, Denver 7, Colorado.

The Oregon Camp

The Oregon camp will be held at Camp Wyeth, Cascade Locks, Oregon. The camp is under the direction of the Presbytery of Portland, Oregon of the Presbyterian church.

Camp Wyeth was originally a C.C.C. camp. It is well built, and is located in a beautiful woodland area along the Columbia Gorge just 55 miles from Portland.

Across the Columbia Highway the Columbia River flows swiftly past the camp.

Experience in the past has shown that when a camp is started and built up on absolute faith, that it will succeed. The Oregon camp will succeed, and it will be one of the highpoints of the year for those who attend.

ACCOMMODATIONS. Four large dormitories. Each dormitory is divided into four rooms which will accommodate 12-15 in a room. Toilet facilities and wash rooms in separate buildings at the rear of dormitories. There is a director's cottage, infirmary, library and recreation hall, and a large dining room. Ample and wholesome food will be served attractively.

The camp can only furnish bed, mattress and pillow. Campers must bring their own sheets and blanket, and other personal toilet effects. Arrangements can be made with the local camp secretary so that these may be mailed to the camp in advance.

In all there are some twenty-six buildings with modern lighting and plumbing. Recreational facilities are ample.

DATES. July 7 to July 14.

LEADERS. Glenn Clark, Starr Daily, Alice Kraft and Ruby Herr Russell.

RATES. $30.00 for the entire period. A $10.00 registration fee is payable in advance and credited to the account. Children 12 years and under, half price.

HOW TO GET THERE. Camp Wyeth is six miles from Cascade Locks, fifty-five miles from Portland. The camp is alongside the Columbia Highway. Trains and busses stop at Cascade Locks. More complete details will be in the local instructions.

SCHOLARSHIPS. Some available. Contact secretary.

SECRETARY. Mr. R. A. Hungerford, 1725 N. E. Wasco Street, Portland 12, Oregon.

The Wisconsin Camp

The Camp Farthest Out in Wisconsin will be held at Wayland Junior College and Academy, Beaver Dam, Wisconsin. Since a previous camp was held there in 1940, practically all of the campus has been modernized both in dormitory and classroom accommodations. The little chapel has been rebuilt with regular church pews, beautiful pulpit and lectern, stained glass windows and a new Hammond organ. There is a new gymnasium with swimming pool. All of this on top of a modern, beautiful campus with up to the minute conveniences add up to a "camp site" that is little short of breathtaking.

Our experience at Wayland Junior College and Academy in 1940, makes everyone eager with the anticipation of a great renewal of spiritual creativity and personal fellowship.

Limited to 200, so apply early!

ACCOMMODATIONS. Accommodations and personal facilities are spacious and everything one could ask for.

DATES. July 14 to July 24.

LEADERS. Glenn Clark, Agnes Sanford, Alice Kraft, Marcia Brown, Roland Brown, Ruby Herr Russell, and May Mayfield.

RATES. $45.00 for the entire period. A $10.00 registration fee is payable in advance at time of application and is credited to your account.

HOW TO GET THERE. One hour from Milwaukee and slightly more than two from Chicago on the Chicago &

Northwestern R. R. (South Beaver Dam station). Bus service from Madison, and from Milwaukee. On highway 151 between Madison and Fond du Lac.

SCHOLARSHIPS. Available. Contact secretary.

SECRETARY. Miss May Mayfield, 6920 Harper Avenue, Chicago 37, Illinois.

The Montana Camp

The Montana Camp Farthest Out will be held in the Methodist Epworth League Camp on King's Hill near Neihart, Montana. Located in the heart of the Rockies, in the midst of towering mountains and stately pines, it is a well nigh perfect setting for a camp of real power. It has been beautifully said that "it is a camp on the King's Hill nigh unto His Heart in the Land of the Shining Mountains."

The Montana camp has made a name for itself in a short time as being a camp that really goes "farthest out" in its search and success in apprehending the creativity of Jesus.

Limited to 100 campers.

ACCOMMODATIONS. Mountain cabins, class rooms, dining hall, showers.

Bring complete bedding as only mattresses are furnished. The camper should also bring warm clothing, sturdy footwear and personal toilet articles.

DATES. July 28 to August 4.

LEADERS. Starr Daily, Roland Brown and others.

RATES. $35.00 for the week. A registration fee of $10.00 is payable in advance and credited to the camper's account.

HOW TO GET THERE. The Methodist Epworth League Camp is situated 1½ miles from Neihart, Montana on Highway 89. Bus service from Great Falls or Livingston.

SECRETARY. Mrs. Grant McDonald, Leigland Apts., Great Falls, Montana.

The Minnesota Camp

The Minnesota camp is held at Lake Koronis Assembly Grounds, Paynesville, Minnesota. Koronis was the first camp, and the forerunner of all the Camps Farthest Out. Nestling beside the deep waters of Lake Koronis in rolling country carpeted with woods, the Minnesota camp has set the pace for all the rest.

The camp offers many opportunities for recreation. From fishing to nature study to tennis and swimming. There are three lovely islands in Lake Koronis that are a constant challenge to the boating enthusiast. It is the custom at Koronis to make a trip to one of these islands for a meeting of dedication and creative spiritual release toward the end of camp. This is one of the high points of the entire period.

Koronis is limited to 175 campers, so apply early.

ACCOMMODATIONS. Two dormitories, housekeeping cottages, central dining room, kitchen, the "chapel on the hill," and an abundance of recreational facilities.

DATES. Supper on August 4 to dinner on August 15.

LEADERS. Glenn Clark, Starr Daily, Glenn Harding, Roland Brown, Alice Kraft, Ruby Russell, Verna Gale, and Gladys Moore.

RATES. $40.00 for the entire period. $25.00 for ministers and their wives. Children: 6 years and under—$2.00 a week; 7 through 12 years, $10.00 a week. For each additional member of the same family, $5.00 per person will be deducted.

Cottages are available in limited numbers at extra charge. Reserve in advance with a $5.00 deposit, in addition to registration fee to camp secretary.

HOW TO GET THERE. Paynesville is 93 miles from the Twin Cities. Consult Soo Line Railroad and the Greyhound and Liederbach bus lines. Campers will be met in Paynesville.

SCHOLARSHIPS. Available. Contact secretary.

SECRETARY. Mrs. Ethel Dow, 912 Lincoln Avenue, Saint Paul 5, Minnesota.

The Ohio Camp

A group of Ohioans held a common vision at the Koronis camp last summer. That vision becomes a reality with this announcement. There will be a Camp Farthest Out "Among the Oaks" at Epworth Park Chautauqua Assembly, Bethesda, Ohio. "Among the Oaks" is a popular camping place for Methodist young people in south-eastern Ohio.

There is a variety of recreational facilities, an outdoor auditorium and large picnic grounds. Develop a spiritual reservoir "Among the Oaks" this summer.

This is another of the camps, built upon absolute faith, that "may move mountains" this summer.

Limited to 175 persons.

ACCOMMODATIONS. A hotel, two lodges, cottages, modern toilet facilities using chlorinated lake water, and wells for drinking water. There are recreational facilities adequate to meet the needs of everyone.

DATES. August 10 to August 17.

LEADERS. Glenn Clark, Roland Brown, G. V. McCausland, and Louise Wrisley.

RATES. $30.00 for the entire period. A $5.00 registration fee is payable in advance and credited to your account. For ministers and their wives the rate is $25.00 for the period. Children twelve years and under, half price.

HOW TO GET THERE. Via Baltimore and Ohio R. R. to Bethesda. Red Star busses to Bethesda. Via automobile, national highway No. 40 to Morristown and then south three miles to Bethesda.

SCHOLARSHIPS. Some available. Contact Rev. Douglas Y. McCreight, 17 North 4th Street, Tipp City, Ohio.

SECRETARY. Mrs. A. R. Brown, 407 South Third Street, Martin's Ferry, Ohio.

Star Island Camp, New Hampshire

This camp is open to those campers who desire time for prayer and meditation rather than lectures.

Star Island is one of the Isles of Shoals. The Isles, located ten miles out at sea from Portsmouth, N. H., were first visited by Captain John Smith in 1614, and since then by innumerable fishing fleets. They have been loved and frequented by many of the finest spirits of New England including Thoreau, Hawthorne, Lowell, and Whittier.

With its white gulls and clouds and ships, its green grass and wind-swept blue skies, this wave-washed top of a great submerged mountain is truly lovely. The vast horizon, the intimate contact with the sea, the winds and sunsets and stars—all these help to release the creative possibilities of this great camp.

ACCOMMODATIONS. Living facilities are in the Oceanic Hotel. Although this hotel was closed during the war years and it may not be in the same condition it was prior to the war, there will be conveniences adequate for the needs of everyone. There is running water on each floor. One will find courteous service, comfort and wholesome food.

DATES. August 16 to August 23.

LEADERS. Glenn Clark, Starr Daily, Glenn Harding, Alice Kraft, Geneva Mercer, and Ruby Herr Russell.

RATES. $27.00 for the week with a 10% increase for those desiring single rooms, ~~$1.00~~ registration fee payable in advance. <sup>$10.00</sup>

Boat fare to and from the island is $1.40 each way.

HOW TO GET THERE. To Portsmouth from Boston via the Boston and Maine R. R.; or by bus from Park Square or North Station in Boston. Those coming by auto may store their car in either an outside parking lot, or inside in a garage.

SCHOLARSHIPS. Available. Contact secretary.

SECRETARY. Mrs. Marion R. Johnson, 33 Summer Street, Weston 93, Massachusetts.

The Winnepesaukee, New Hampshire Camp

The eastern group has again chosen beautiful Geneva Point Camp, Winnepesaukee, New Hampshire for one of their two camps. In the midst of rugged, wooded mountains, this camp, nestling beside the bright waters of Lake Winnepesaukee, is an invitation to communion with God and spiritual renewal.

Personal facilities are such that in the past many have chosen this camp for comfort and living convenience.

Simply being among the sprawling mountains day after day, in the midst of the great virgin forest, away from the daily responsibilities and details of city or town life, will do something for you. You will leave Geneva Point a new person, in the grip of a great eternal purpose.

ACCOMMODATIONS. Inn, cottages, bungalows, cabins, recreation hall, chapel, dining room, sanitary kitchen, boats, tennis court and beach. Everything modern, comfortable and convenient.

DATES. August 23 to September 1.

LEADERS. Glenn Clark, Glenn Harding, Starr Daily, Ruth Robison, Geneva Mercer, Florence Wagner, Alice Price.

RATES. Single rooms $24.75 to $27.25. Double rooms $21.75 to $24.75. Bungalows $27.25. Children with parents: 1-3 years, 50% adult rate; 4-8 years, 65% adult rate; 9-12 years, 80% adult rate; 12 and over, adult rate.

REGISTRATION. A $10.00 registration is payable in advance to the Secretary. Make checks out to Foundation Farthest Out, Inc. For each additional member of OM SVASTI!

In the great glory of all the Victor's deeds,
Piling up the wondrous beauty essence of life and peace,
Let the swiftly Saving Lady Arya Tara
Move the rain of millions of elixir boats!

Konchok — best jewel so rare in the world,
Lhundrub — mountain two power treasure of Losang's system,
Gyaltshen — total conquest of every opposition,
I pray to the glorious Lama who upholds that well!

Over the eastern peak of two stories' actions,
The moon of completion of the beautiful signs and marks,
With its amazing shining waves of beneficial light,
Free, let it always rise for oceans of eons!

His body nourished with elixir of the three educations,
Adorned with thousands of principles from extensive learning,
Beautified with priceless jewels of thought and contemplation,
May this best leader, Lord of deities, long remain with us!

By the joyous play of his scintillating blazing sun
Of his three expertises, not dependent on others,
So skilled in making bloom the lotus garden of Losang's Teaching,
May this great sun of Teaching long remain with us!

On the great ship of the energetic bodhisattva deeds
Going with the favorable wind of high resolve,
Taking all beings to the jewel isle, pure and free,
May this great captain long remain with us!

By the blessing of the reliable holy refuge,
By the power of relativity of primordially void appearance,
By the truth of our one-pointed faith,
May these aims be effortlessly achieved!
