Dear Mr. Smith,

Enclosed are the photocopies you requested from the Zohmah Charlot Papers in the Jean Charlot Collection.

You will see that I have placed the items in homely folders in order to stabilize them in transit. The initials DZC on the labels and the photocopies stand for Dorothy Zohmah Charlot, her legal name (although the title of the collection is Zohmah Charlot Papers since very few people knew her first name).

Also enclosed are three copies of the invoice. When paid, I will send you another copy indicating payment received.

I have not charged for the color copies of Paul Brunton's letters because we used them to experiment with a new color copier, something we would have done anyway.

If you cite any of this material, please use the following:

Zohmah Charlot Papers, Jean Charlot Collection, University of Hawaii Library, [item]

If there is enough space, please add:

Honolulu, Hawaii (after Library)

If you have any questions, please let me know. Many thanks for this interesting project!

Sincerely,

Ellen Chapman
